Foreword

This volume of the Kaleidoscope comes to you in much the same guise as its predecessors, yet we feel that we must qualify our gift with a few words of thanks and, with your permission, of reflection. It is perhaps enough to leave you with the thought that has been ours in the accomplishment of our task. Work in itself and for itself is neither an unmixed good nor an unadulterated evil; but work for a worthy end is its own reward. Our endeavor to serve Middlebury and our class, whatever its result, has brought us the satisfaction of having done something in a cause which each of us loves. We give you this 1923 Kaleidoscope with gratitude for the privilege of service and with the conviction that the college of our day which we have endeavored to present in these pages will grow with the years in purpose and strength.

To
Paul Dwight Moody
the Class of 1923

respectfully and affectionately dedicates this volume

The Class of 1922 entered Middlebury in the fall of an eventful year, for it was then that we won our coveted victory over U. V. M. in football with the result that Gamaliel Painter's Cane was seen on Campus. That was a good start and after taking our part of the Sophomore activities with good grace we retaliated by carrying away the athletic honors in football and the basketball championship of the College. With the exception of the ill-fated Rope-Pull we succeeded in winning our several class events, at the same time keeping up our academic rank.

It was our privilege Sophomore year to initiate the Freshmen to the customs and standards of Middlebury. This we did with the true and persistent spirit, yet emphasizing the very necessity of living up to these standards. During this epoch year we lost the Hat Scrap to the Freshmen but successfully held our own in football. Many members of our class, both men and women, have gained recognition in various college activities and we sincerely hope to keep up our good record and to leave Middlebury our Senior year in the same spirit with which we entered—"To Win."

The Class of 1923 entered Middlebury in the fall of an eventful year, for it was then that we won our coveted victory over U. V. M. in football with the result that Gamaliel Painter's Cane was seen on Campus. That was a good start and after taking our part of the Sophomore activities with good grace we retaliated by carrying away the athletic honors in football and the basketball championship of the College. With the exception of the ill-fated Rope-Pull we succeeded in winning our several class events, at the same time keeping up our academic rank.

It was our privilege Sophomore year to initiate the Freshmen to the customs and standards of Middlebury. This we did with a true and persistent spirit, yet emphasizing the very necessity of living up to these standards. During this epoch year we lost the Hat Scrap to the Freshmen but successfully held our own in football. Many members of our class, both men and women, have gained recognition in various college activities and we sincerely hope to keep up our good record and to leave Middlebury our Senior year in the same spirit with which we entered—"To Win."

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

I. MURRAY ADAMS, AΣΦ

"Ike"

Swampscott, Mass.

Swampscott High School; Class Football (1, 2); Charter Member Press Club; Secretary-treasurer T..KA. (2), President (3); Secretary-treasure Debating Club (1, 2); President (3); Merrill Prize Speaker; Captain Debating Team (2); Student Council (3).

Hark! Yon crash of glass and brass? Say, 's 'twere but the mere precipitation of the chapel chandelier upon the floor? Ah! then it must needs be "Ike," haranguing the mob once more. An orator, brilliant but dissipated he, to whom the piquant taste of citronella is not unknown.

STANTON EDDY ASHLEY, ΔKE

"Stan"

New Britain, Conn.

New Britain High School; Phillips Exeter Academy; Football (1, 2, 3); Track Squad (1, 2); Tennis Team (1, 2, 3); Hockey (2); College Jazz Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Mandolin Club (1, 2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Delta Tau; Sages.

Haw! A Merry Nutmeg from the Nutmeg State! A "Pillar of Strength" on the gridiron, Stan has also manfully borne the burden of his social duties. The hill would no more come to Stan than to Mahomet, with the logical result.

GUILFORD MARKS AUSTIN, AΣΦ

"Joe"

Margaretville, N. Y.

Margaretville High School; Assistant Manager Football (3); Secretary Outing Club (3); Kaleidoscope Board; Manager Football, Season 1922; Sages

Alone of his family his freshman year, Joe did his best to keep up a good reputation, but since his brother came he has left that anxious duty to him and has gone the way of the ungodly. But his virtues, though tarnished by time, are still there, and in plenty, if you only look for them. Joe is one of the busiest men on the campus, and we wonder when he ever sleeps.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

ALLEN DOUGLAS BLISS

"Bliss"

Middlebury, Vt.

Middlebury High School

We used to wonder, those first days in college, whose kid brother it was that came to Chapel every day. But we soon found out our mistake, for Bliss proved to be far ahead of some of us in Chem, and now, after three years, he's even farther ahead. If he doesn't stop he'll mix up something which will blow the down of youth from his face and fix it on the bald pate of one of those Latin statues which he idolizes.

"Now, it might be translated this way—"

SANFORD A. CARROLL KAP

"Beef"

Fiskdale, Mass.

Hitchcock Academy; Clark University, Ex '19; College Band (1, 2); Manager (3); Glee Club (3); College Orchestra (2, 3); Cross Country Squad (3); Class Football (1, 2); Sages.

No, we haven't got a thing against Carroll, except that he seems always to be ready to grab our money for his band, of which he is a vital part. Beef does send a wicked gust thru that horn of his. Before the year is out we'd like to see a muffler on it.

"His map is his fortune."

CHESTER RUSSELL CORSEN

"Chess" "Chet"

Worcester, Mass.

Worcester Classical High School. Executive Committee Men's Christian Organization (1); Executive Committee, Wetherell Debating Club (2); Press Club (2); President, English Club (3); German Club (3).

This sedate gentleman was known in his freshman year chiefly as the room-mate of "E. D." Drost and as one of the founders of the then popular but now extinct Fussers' Club. He got his start scouring kettles and breaking dishes in Mr. Hepburn's Cabaret; and since then has developed remarkably, except that he still holds aloof as tenaciously as ever from (1) athletics, and (2) women. But we are always a little bit suspicious of these "quiet" fellows!

ROBERT A. CLARK, KAP
"Bob"

Readsboro, Vt.

Wilbraham Academy; Associate Business Manager of Campus.

Diminutive? Yes, but so was Napoleon. But we'll bet that this chap would make Nap gasp for air when it comes to the problems of a student. We'd like to see Bob emulate the example of his explorer ancestor and cut his way into the fastnesses of the other side of the hill.

DEVaux DE LANCEY, ΔKE
"Bob"

Yonkers, N. Y.

Yonkers High School; Cornell Ex '23; Baseball Squad; President Anzive.

This lad is the head of the supply department on Geology field trips and we'll vouch for his carrying out his duties with credit to his office. He is gifted with a wonderful smile and a laugh which is a pure imitation of that of his pony Sinbad.

ERWIN EWALD DROST, ΔΣΦ
"E. D."

Milwaukee, Wis.

South Division High School; Football (1, 2, 3); Track (1, 2, 3); Baseball Squad (2, 3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Captain-elect Football (3); Sophomore Rules Committee; Interfraternity Council (3); Delta Tau; Sage.

It's been sometime since we heard E. D.'s wild yodel shattering the silence at Hepburn. It makes us wonder if his troubles weigh heavily upon him. Still, his golden grin is with us yet, and we hate to think of its leaving us to go back and brighten up the darkness of Milwaukee.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

ALFRED AVERY DRAPER

"Al"

Cleveland, O.

East Technical High School; College Band (2, 3); Glee Club (2, 3); Class Basketball (1); Assistant in Bacteriology.

If it weren't for Al, where would the band be? We sometimes feel that if he should take his huge horn home with him, there would be a decided change in the complexion of his letters thereafter. At least they would be less pink. How does he do it, anyway? It must be because he hails from Cleveland, for that will explain anything. Al says his future occupation is putting wrinkles in peanut-shells.

HENRY HOWARD EDDY

"Eddy"

North Clarendon, Vt.

Rutland High School, T. K. A.; Campus reporter (1); President Press Club (1, 3); Vice-President T. K. A. (3); Varsity Debate (1, 2); Captain Debating Team (2); Vice-President Whetherell Debating Club (3); Rally Banquet Committee; Editor Hand Book (2); Parker Prize Speaker.

In spite of his experience at Silver Bay, Eddy, the fire-brand orator, has managed to keep to the narrow path ever since. His Campus record is an enviable one and we look to see him in the President's chair ere long.

ELBERT T. GALLAGHER, ΔKE

"Rip"

St. Johnsbury Center, Vt.

St. Johnsbury High School; Ensign, U.S.N.R.F.; Varsity Baseball (1, 2); Varsity Football (3);

Behold the Herbert Hoover of Hepburn Hall! Wilson and all his Cabinet never had a harder job in feeding a mob of hungry Belgians than does "Rip" in providing for the sustenance of his charges, and Rip copes with the problem almost as successfully as Herb.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

CORNELL GRAY

"Doc"

Shushan, N. Y.

Washington Academy, Salem, N. Y.; Class Basketball (2, 3); Track Squad (1, 2, 3); Varsity Track (2); Cross Country Team (3).

They do say that Doctor Gray's boy is the pride of the town back in li'l old Shushan, and people who have observed him during Summer session testify that he shakes a right mean foot on occasion. It makes us wonder greatly where he gets that crust of quiet courtesy over such a passionate interior.

ALDEN K. HAY, KΔP

"Kink"

Derby, Vt.

Derby Academy, S. A. T. C., Football Squad (1); Class Football (2); Merrill Prize Contest (2).

Kink originally started with the Class of '22, but having spent a year in the wild and woolly he wished to become associated with real men and joined the Class of '23. After spending 23 hours a day getting ready to study his Greek, Kink finds that he doesn't know the assignment so he compromises by going to bed.

"Judas Priest."

LLOYD THOMPSON HAYWARD, ΔY

"Lefty"

Montpelier, Vt.

Montpelier High School; Campus Board (3); Art Editor, Kaleidoscope (3); Outing Club (3).

"Lefty" and his pencil have walked hand in hand through college. If it hadn't been for our Art Ed., where would Middlebury have been? or the "Kaleid"? We often wonder why he doesn't "step out" more. A girl would be tickled pink to have her dance order all decorated with little sketches. But as his is a retiring nature, there's no hope, at all.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

REGINALD GRANT HODSON, XΨ

"Doc"

Rutland, Vt.

Rutland High School; Glee Club; Junior Brom. Committee.

Doc is specializing in C courses of course, for that is the usual procedure for a pre-medic. He has a reputation for being the sort of a fellow who will lend you his last shirt and then go purchase one for himself. He also has a reputation for being one of the social lights of Weybridge Street.

Doc seems to take after the fabled tortoise, for in spite of his death-defying speed, he gets there.

JAMES SULLIVAN HUNT XΨ

"Jimmie"

Rutland, Vt.

Rutland High School; Norwich University Ex '23; Advertising Manager Kaleidoscope, Track Squad (2).

Jimmie only stayed one year at Norwich and then decided to come to Middlebury and get educated. But he still clings to his military training, for he goes A. W. O. L. every once in a while to Rutland. Probably on "Kaleid" business!

Jimmie comes to us with the reputation of being a track man and we hope to see him through next year.

CLYDE CLINTON JAKWAY, ΔKE

"Jack"

Barre, Mass.

Barre High School; Football Squad (1, 2, 3); Class Football (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Assistant Manager Baseball (3); Baseball Squad (1); Delta Tau; Sages.

Jake is surpassed in versatility only by Leonardo da Vinci himself, for not only has he proven his ability on the football field, but also on the basketball court and baseball diamond, not to mention the gentle art of socializing, which Clyde perhaps mastered in one of his many visits to Paris.

To wit: One onion.

EDDY STEPHEN KALIN, KΔP

"Swede"

New Britain, Conn.

New Britain High School; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); S. A. T. C. (1); Class Basketball (1, 2); Varsity Basketball Squad (2); Class Football (2); Class President (2); Sophomore Rules Committee; First Merrill Prize Speaker; Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Interfraternity Council (3); Student Council (3); Athletic Council (3); English Club (3); Delta Tau.

If all the things his classmates say about Swede were printed here, this book would be worth while. Alas, it can't be done. Let Swede's work on campus and the gridiron speak for itself!

EDWIN JULIAN KLOCK, ΔY

"Ticker"

Wallingford, Vt.

Wallingford High School; Assistant Manager Track (3); Fourth Merrill Prize (2); Interfraternity Council (3).

"Ticker" has a brain that works like an Elgin: on the go for twenty-four hours a day. How he reels off math, formulas, and economics rules, and jigger definitions! Besides his scientific tendencies we see inherent in him those of Demosthenes and of William Jennings Bryan.

GILBERT OSMOND LACY, ΑΣΦ

"Lace"

Camden, N. J.

Camden Manual Training and Brown Preparatory High Schools; Varsity Basketball (1, 2, 3).

Absolutely and without doubt the best looking man in college. Please don't look at his picture but take our word for it. He made his reputation by gyping Willie Cohen on basketball trips. Anybody that can get two dinners out of Willie (the price we mean, of course) is right there with the goods. Lace's name will probably go down to posterity as the founder of new fraternal (fem.) organizations.

WILLIAM H. LAWTON

"Harry"

Trenton, N. J.

Trenton High School; Class Basketball (1, 2).

The kitchen knave, the man who helps the cook prepare the grub that feeds the men at Hepburn, to parody the old one about the cow with the crooked horn. However, there is nothing crooked about Lawton, neither does he blow his own horn. Here's to him, and may his 137.6 candle-power smile continue business as usual.

CHARLES LESLIE LEONARD, JR., X Ψ

"Chuck"

Poultney, Vermont

Troy Conference Academy; Class President (1); Football Squad (1, 2, 3); Varsity Football (2); Varsity Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain (3); Chairman Sophomore Rules Committee; Parker Prize Speaker (1); Merrill Prize Speaker (2); Athletic Council (3); Delta Tau; Sages.

Our Chuck is somewhat of an honor-grabber, and a speedy one, at that. The first few days of his college career he picked up a president's job, and then, being a high-class bouncer, he drew a captaincy in basketball. Chuck has some faults, no doubt, like all the rest of us, but his good fellowship will not be forgotten by those who know him.

RADCLIFFE W. LYON, A $\Sigma\Phi$

"Bunny"

Stamford, N. Y.

Stamford Seminary; Press Club (1, 2); Secretary (2).

He hails from the wild and woolly Catskills but is gradually overcoming that handicap. Bunny used to be Davy's right-hand man, but Davy caught him smoking one of his two-bit cigars and his day's work was done.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

ADOLF GEORGE MAY, $\Lambda\Sigma\Phi$

"Duke"

West Lynn, Massachusetts

Lynn English High School; Assistant Basket-ball Manager (3).

Duke's Mixture is a choice blend of terpsichore and sartorial perfection. On these he feeds and satisfies his hunger for college and its gay, gay life.

"Who's your tailor?"

HARRY GODDARD OWEN, ΔKE

"Harry"

Port Henry, N. Y.

Campus Reporter (1); Associate Editor (2, 3); Editor-in-Chief 1923 Kaleidoscope; Press Club (1, 2, 3); Interfraternity Council (3); Accompanist Glee Club (3); English Club (3); Track Squad (1).

His life at Midd is a symphonic poem. 'Tis rumored that, while symphonizing during one of his rare visits to Port Henry, Harry tried manfully to change the tempo di Ice-boat with disastrous results to himself. Nevertheless we can give him nothing but praise for his musical write-ups in our Campus which, tho we do not understand them, doubtless would be clear to a mind like Paderewski's, or Cousin Lewis'.

CLIFFORD ARTHUR OAKLEY, $K\Delta P$

"Tap"

Newport, Vermont

Newport High School; Class Treasurer (1); Delta Tau.

Tap's rotund obesity must be caused by his sedentary habits of studying oft and late. Either that, some say, or his zealous abstinence from the use of tobacco, has accounted for his corpulence. Our guess is both.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

MELVIN A. PERKINS

"Perk"

Rutland, Vt.

Rutland High School; Glee Club (2, 3).

Perk roomed with Bigelow his first year and became infected with the Phi Bet germ. His has been a violent case. Tearing thru all the hard courses in the curriculum at seven courses per semester, he is well on his way to graduate with '22. We shall then feel more comfortable with our humble grades.

ALFRED W. QUACKENBUSH, ΔKE

"Quack"

Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Cornwall-on-Hudson High School; Class Football (1, 2); Captain (1, 2); Varsity Football (2, 3); All-State Quarterback (2); Sophomore Hop Committee; Delta Tau.

Hats off, gentlemen, a genius. Alfred claims direct descentance from Theodore Roosevelt of cow punching days by virtue of his bull throwing ability, and far be it from us to question his success. But he has a skillful right toe, which has saved Middlebury from defeat. Our only question is, why doesn't Al apply to the curriculum?

CLARENCE ELMER ROGERS, KΔP

"Rog"

Barre, Vt.

Spaulding High School; Vice-President Y.M.C.A. (3); College Band (1,2,3); Photo Editor Kaleidoscope.

This man with the calm exterior is said to be able to tickle the ivories with remarkable precision. He hails from the granite city and will wear as well in any crowd as the product of that city does in a cemetery. Please don't imply from that we wish to see him in a cemetery, for we value him too much in our midst.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

ALFRED MORTIMER ROSCOE

"Rosco"

New Haven, Vermont

Troy Conference Academy, Poultney, Vt.; Assistant Instructor in Biology.

Poor Roscoe is lonesome—the loneliest man in Middlebury, and we're afraid that if it weren't for his avid interest in insects, which keeps him hour after hour in the biology lab, he would be so lonely that—horrors, where are we going to?

DONALD ROSS, XΨ

"Don"

West Rutland, Vt.

West Rutland High School; Football Squad (1, 2); Class Football (1, 2); Sophomore Hop Committee; Baseball Squad (2, 3); Class Basketball Manager (2); Business Manager, Kaleidoscope Sages.

Don, needless to say, is a member of the Ross dynasty, which has ruled and served this institution for decades. Unlike the old dynasties of history, this one doesn't seem to become decadent, for everyone hails Don as a prince.

MALCOM ROSS, XΨ

"Mac"

Rutland, Vermont

Rutland High School; Social Committee (3); Chairman Junior Week Committee (3).

Yes, here's another one. Originally entering with the Class of '22, Mac, having once had a taste of the salt air, while in the navy, couldn't resist the lure of the seas. So he signed up as a wireless op., weighed anchor and left us for a year; to come back into '23, where he has been welcomed as a homesick mariner should be.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

CYRIL EDWARD SHELVEY, XΨ

"Cy"

Waterbury, Vt.

Rutland High School; Sophomore Rules Committee; Class Treasurer (2); Honor System Committee (3); Treasurer Undergraduate Association (3); Class President (3); Secretary Press Club (1); Varsity Track (1, 2); Cross Country Squad (3); Glee Club (3); Outing Club.

One of the jobs the most despised by the owner thereof is that of extorting dues from his beloved classmates. How Cy can carry out his arduous duties and still wear that smile of his, we can't understand.

ROWLAND RAWSON SHEPARDSON, ΔKE

"Shep"

Reading, Mass.

Student Council (1, 2); Soph. Rules Committee; Chairman Soph. Hop Committee; Football Squad (1, 2, 3); Class Football (2); Track Squad (2); Chairman Song Book Committee; Kaleidoscope Board; Glee Club (3); President Apollo Club (3).

As long as you are thinking of (Reading) let us present for your consideration this stalwart youth.

With the advent of the football season, Shep started out to be an athlete, and altho he didn't succeed to the full extent of his wishes we felt that he deserved something for his perseverance and gave him a job as Chairman of our Soph. Hop Committee, for which we were afterward duly grateful.

EDWARD ARTHUR SIKORSKI, ΑΣΦ

"Si"

North Bergen, N. J.

Cliffside High School; Basketball (2, 3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Sophomore Rules Committee; Sages.

One would think that Si would long since have become sick of evolving vile smells by mixing things up, but perhaps he counts on making his chemistry bring him a well-stocked cellar. If by now he has no variety of formulae made up for such a purpose, he's no good at all. But the lab isn't all that takes his time, as you who have seen him in action on the basketball court can testify. There as in the lab, he's using it to good advantage.

ORVILLE TANNER SINCERBOX, ΔΥ

"Sincer"

Wassaic, N. Y.

Amenia High School.

It's a discouraging thing, thinks Sincer, to try to live down the wild reputation of an older brother. He evidently thinks that college is for study, and vacation—ah; ask Sincer. They say he trips the light fantastic with alarming grace!

SAMUEL JAMES THOMPSON Δ. Y.

"Sam"

Greenwich, N. Y.

Greenwich High School; Track Squad (1, 2, 3); Class Track (1); Class Football (1); Class Treasurer (3); Outing Club (2, 3); Sophomore Hop Committee; Sage.

Between following up his hobby and the class dues, "Sam" manages to keep pretty busy. His ready smile and abundant store of good nature ought to help him get away in both lines of activity. Incidentally to his being elected Class Treasurer, they put his side-kick on the Auditing Committee. My, Sid!

WILLIAM EMERSON TUCKER, JR., ΑΣΦ

"Bill"

Ipswich, Massachusetts

Manning High School.

For a year Bill seemed unable to get along in college without seeing his twin every so often. But we're afraid that that twin has of late been sadly neglected. Bill himself is much missed from Hepburn, where, until recently, he has made his headquarters. However, his new quarters are far more convenient, we hear.

BASIL BARRY WALSH, ΔΥ

"Barry"

East Rupert, Vt.

Burr and Burton Seminary, Manchester, Vt.; Class Basketball (1); Class Football (1, 2); College Choir (1, 2, 3); String Quartet (2); Band (2); Glee Club (3); El Circulo Hispano.

Basil, like most musicians, is a man of temperament. His musical ability ranges from playing a brass horn in our band to playing the viola in the String Quartet. But there really is more to Barry than his music. He is a good fellow in the true sense of the word, and worthy of being called one's friend.

DONALD FESSENDEN WEEKES, ΑΣΦ

"Wampus"

Belmont, Massachusetts

Belmont High School.

Small? But, oh my! We'll never forget how Wampus streaked across the gridiron, and landed on the hat, two years ago. We have an idea that he'll some day be training college coaches in gym work or skating, at both of which he shines.

HARRY BLACKINGTON WELLS

"H. B."

Richmond Hill, L. I.

Richmond Hill High School:

H. B., or more properly, H. Blackinton, is rapidly attaining the prominence of his English namesake, H. G. It is generally understood in educational circles that Wells is to have complete charge of all Geology field-trips this year and next.

His strong points are the mandolin and French, but when he combines the two, O misericorde!

JOHN HOWARD WHITE

"Jack"

Thorndike, Massachusetts

Palmer High School, Palmer, Mass.; S. A. T. C., 1918; Second Parker Prize Speaker (1); Merrill Prize Speaker (2); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Wetherell Debating Club (2); Varsity Baseball Squad (1, 2, 3); Football Squad (3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Manager (3).

Jack came back to Middlebury after a vacation of some length, having previously been a member of 1922. In spite of this stigma, we welcome him to this illustrious number of men and women to join with us in our pilgrimage to Middlebury's Hall of Fame. An active member and a smiling friend, we claim him as our own.

PHILIP MATHER WHITNEY, AΣΦ

"Phil"

Bridgeport, Conn.

Bridgeport High School; Track Squad (1, 2); Class Football (1); Class Track (1); Cross Country (3).

Since Phil drove in from the Nutmeg State, he has been the ward of his brother. But he hadn't been here very long before he started off showing that brother how to do things. We rather guess he'll keep it up, too!

RUTHERFORD JOHN GETTENS

Mooers, New York

Mooers High School.

After one year's absence, this quiet chap, dignity personified, is now with us as a member of 1923. Not content to sit by and consider himself apart from us, he is entering into our activities with an interest that begets him a warm welcome to the class.

ELSIE JOSEPHINE BARRELL

"Else," "Joey"

White River Junction, Vt.

Hartford High School; College Orchestra (2,3);
Y. W. C. A. Publicity Committee (3).

Introducing Elsie, artist and musician, filling both roles successfully. She must use all her breath playing the saxophone, for speech is as rare with her as silence is with the average woman. Her posters and pictures show that she has real talent and we expect to see within the next few years the name Elsie J. Barrell among the lists of Prominent American Artists.

BEATRICE WILLIAMS BENEDICT

"Bee"

New Haven, Vt.

Beeman Academy, New Haven, Vermont; Women's Chorus (1); Glee Club (3).

"Bee" is a good musician, good student (you ought to hear her parler francais!) and can put a few words together in such a way that you call it good reading. After a little training in writing for the Campus she is sure to shine as a literary light.

HELEN IVA BENEDICT, ΣΚ

"Binks"

Ticonderoga, N. Y.

Ticonderoga High School; Campus Board (2), Associate Business Manager (3); Women's Chorus (1); World Fellowship Committee Y.W.C.A. (2); D.G.R.; Social Service Band (1, 2); Home Economics Club (2); Kaleidoscope Board (3).

"B" is for Binks, she sure has some pep;

"I" is for imp, for that is her rep;

"N" is for nothing that she cannot do;

"K" is for "kute" she's that through and through;

"S" is for student, but not a hard grind;

(Put these together and Binks you will find).

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

PEARL ELIZABETH BLACKBURN

"Pearline"

Newport, Vt.

Fair Haven High School; Glee Club (1, 3); Student Volunteer (1, 2, 3); Secretary Sunday Noon Club (2); Choir (2, 3).

From a review of "Pearl of the Parsonage": You have pictured here the heroine of this novel. At first the seemingly shy and demure daughter of a minister, but on further perusal found to be full of fun and enthusiasm. Her college education brings her high marks, good times, and loyal friends. A sequel to this story would doubtless find Pearl the wife of a missionary in China, converting the admiring heathen with the zeal formerly devoted to Bat-Cot feeds.

HELEN ELIZABETH BOLTON, ΠΒΦ

"Topsey"

Troy, N. Y.

Lansingburg High School; Basketball (1); Choir (1, 2, 3); Women's Chorus (1); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Y.W.C.A. Social Committee (2, 3); World Fellowship Committee (3); Delegate to Camp Maqua (2); Glee Club (3); Pan Hellenic Council (3); Maqua Club (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3).

"A dancing shape, an image gay,
To haunt, to startle, and waylay—
A creature not too bright or good
For human nature's daily food.
The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength and skill."

MARTHA HARRIETTE BOLTON, ΠΒΦ

"Mart"

Troy, N. Y.

Lansingburg High School; Choir (1, 2, 3); Women's Chorus (1); Glee Club (3); House Chairman Hillcrest (3).

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater,
Had a daughter and couldn't keep her—
So he went and put her in Hillcrest.
And there he found he "Kep" her best.

There never was a more conscientious or beloved guardian of Hillcrest traditions and her love for the place is evidenced by the fact that she has lived there for three years.

DOROTHY ELLEN BRAINERD, ΠΒΦ

"Dot"

Middlebury, Vt.

Middlebury High School; Home Economics Club (1, 2); Campus Reporter (3); Press Club (3); Apollo Club (3).

"Dot" is one of our town girls whom we wish we could have on the hill. Life seems to always move smoothly with her, although she causes an occasional ripple in Economics class by continually forgetting her pencil and borrowing the prof's. She is very agreeable and we have never once seen her cross, a record held by very few.

BARBARA TABER BROWNING, ΣΚ

"Bob"

East Orange, N. J.

Cabinet (3); Social Service Band (1, 2); D.G.R.; Pan Hellenic Council (3).

"Bob and Binks," not two, but one,
Always happy, studies some;
Glad to help whene'er she can,
Ever ready to lend a hand.

MARION CHARLOTTE BUFFUM, ΣΚ

"Buffie"

Burlington, Vt.

Burlington High School; Baseball (1); Y.W.C.A. Membership Committee (2); S.T.P.; Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Campus Reporter (1); Associate Editor (2, 3); Sunday Noon Club Council (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Cercle Francais (3).

Bountiful with her good nature and helpfulness—
Benefiting the college with her abilities—
Businesslike on the Campus and Kaleidoscope
Bestowed with a bounteous supply of brains—
Bedecked with a beatific grin—
That's Buffie.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

ELSIE LOIS CAMPBELL

"Hump"

Leominster, Mass.

Leominster High School; Volley Ball (2).

Perhaps some people call Elsie quiet, but all who know her agree that she is as lively and entertaining as one could wish—a sure cure for the most severe case of blues. Problem: Take a joke, turn it inside out and backside to, and what will you have? Answer: A joke, if Elsie tells it.

MARY FRANCES CASWELL, IIBΦ

Middlebury, Vt.

Middlebury High School; Women's Chorus (1); Glee Club (3); Choir (2, 3); Home Economics Club (1, 2, 3).

Did you ever see Frances when she was not in a terrible hurry to get somewhere or do something? We sometimes envy her as she spins by in her Chevrolet, but she needs a change from her cross-country walks to classes.

Fair of face.

Reliable.

Ambitious.

None such.

Cheerful.

Energetic.

Studious.

MARY PRISCILLA CHASE

"Pris"

Rumford, R. I.

East Providence High School; College Chorus (1); Home Service Band (2).

Priscilla, a Puritan maiden,

So think you? Oh then, you don't know her,

The wealth of her laughter and friendship,

Yet strong, like those maidens of yore,

She works with a will and a purpose—

Of that kind we wish we had more.

FLORENCE GREGG CLARKE, AX

"Tony"

Washington, Conn.

Women's Chorus (1); Glee Club (3); Anzive (3);
Home Economics Club (2, 3).

"Tony and her uke" are always great additions to any party. Her line of songs is unlimited. We are sorry to say, however, that Tony is inclined to be just a wee bit tardy on arriving at various college functions. She is "just crazy" about the Maison Francaise, but we hope that she doesn't mean that literally.

VIE SYLVIA DOLE

"Vie Sylvia"

Danville, Vt.

Danville High School.

Her supply of wit is inexhaustible—her thirst for Chemistry insatiable—her droll manner of speech inimitable—her scholarly achievements incomparable. She is constantly convulsing those near her by her startling humor, for her demure little smile gives no warning of the unexpected gems of wit that fall from her lips. As to books—she's a shark in every line of study, and the A's come tripping hand in hand to meet her at the end of each semester.

HARRIET FITCH FILLMORE, AX

"Fill"

Mooers, N. Y.

Mooers High School; Student Government Council (3); KALEIDOSCOPE Board (3).

Fill put Mooers on the map; we never heard of it till she arrived in Middlebury. Everybody knows Fill by her musical (?) laugh which is always accompanied by a characteristic wrinkling of her nose. However, she can be serious, as is shown by the fact that she is a member of the Student Government Council. Jolly, friendly, loved by many, admired by all is Fill—a mighty lucky day for Midd when she left Mooers to come here.

ESTHER FROST, ΔΔΔ

"Frost"

St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Portland High School, Portland, Me.; Basketball (1, 2); Volley Ball (1, 2); Captain (1); Home Economics Club (1, 2), Executive Board (2); Night Hawks (1); W. W. Club (1); Glee Club (3) Kaleidoscope Board (3).

If you ever feel in need of entertainment, ask Frost to render the "Hillcrest Anthem." She received her early training in "Pullman Alley," where she, with her pal, Tuck, led chorus singing sometimes after 10:30! Every class possesses its "Heavenly Twins." Did you ever see Frost without Tuck? A lively pair of mischievous, lovable children.

MARY KATHERINE GAHAGAN, ΘΧΕ

"K," "Kitty"

Oxford, Mass.

Oxford High School; Classical High School, Worcester, Mass.; Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Captain American Ball (3); Home Economics Club (2, 3); Glee Club (3); Press Club (3); Apollo Club (3).

Reward—Amount to be named by winner—to any person who can in any way, shape or manner, describe the humor, the pep, the good nature, or the generosity of Mary Katherine Gahagan. The first is inimitable, the next unexplainable, the following indefinable, and the last unbounded.

MARGARET ELIZABETH GRAHAM, ΠΒΦ

"Hankie"

Middlebury, Vt.

Middlebury High School; Home Economics Club (1, 2).

Like most reserved, dignified looking people, Hankie is really just full of fun and jollity, always ready for a good time. Besides being quite frisky, she has a way of accomplishing her work which cannot be excelled. For three years Margaret has come from the other side of the town to 8 o'clock classes and hasn't received a half-cut yet! Yes, just like that, always dependable.

MERNA GRACE HICKS, IIBΦ

Winchester, N. H.

Winchester High School; Women's Chorus (1); Glee Club (3); Home Economics (1,2,3); S.T.P.

What ho on the Rialto! The occupant of "Pullman Alley No. 6"— Those were the days we really came to know her—difficult of acquaintance at first but a genuine friend to all—full of pep and fun.

"But if the while I think on you, dear friend,

All pleasures are restored and troubles end."

EMILY POND HOBBS, AX

"Em"

Worcester, Mass.

North High School, Worcester; Class Vice-President (1); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); W.A.A. Council (1, 2, 3); Vice-President (3); All-Midd Track (2); Home Economics Club (1, 2); L.T.B.P. Club; All-Midd Volley Ball (1, 2); All-Midd Basketball (2); American Ball (3).

Emily is an athlete;

Emily is a belle;

Emily is an ideal pal as all her friends can tell.

ELIZABETH McDOWELL JACOBS

"Betty"

Wilmington, Del.

Bloomfield High School; Friends School, Wilmington; Associate Editor of Campus (2, 3); Home Service Band (2); Social Service Committee Y.W.C.A. (3); Cercle Francais (3).

"The light of love, the purity of grace,

The mind, the music breathing from her face.

The heart whose softness harmonized the whole."

If you know her there is no need to describe her, and if you do not no words can tell you what she is, for Betty is one of those rare beings from whom gentleness and sweetness radiate.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

MILDRED BARBARA KIENLE

Easthampton, Mass.

Easthampton High School; Basketball (1, 2); Volley Ball (1, 2); All-Midd Volley Ball (1, 2); Captain Volley Ball (2); Baseball (2); Y. W. C. A. Finance Committee (3); Glee Club (1, 3); American Ball (3).

Introducing our human "Book Review"—"one of those fortunate individuals who can pass from Professor Bonney's Analyt. at 8:00 to Physics I at 9:00 and still be satisfied with her marks at the end of the semester. By this you might think her sole purpose and desire was the golden key. Not so! She is a star athlete, too, giving to her athletics the same energy and pep that she puts into her studies.

DAISY CLARKE KIMBALL, ΣK

Bellows Falls, Vt.

Bellows Falls High School; Women's Chorus (1); Glee Club (3); Home Economics Club (2); Volley Ball (1, 2); Baseball (2); American Ball (3).

Will you please direct me to the college information bureau—yes, certainly, Miss Daisy Kimball, fourth floor Pearsons. If there is anything she does not know about, it certainly has not happened. Her information extends not only to college news, but she is also a good student and has a great supply of funny stories and jokes.

ESTHER MARGARET LANGWILL

"Pruno"

Springfield, Mass.

Bellows Falls High School, Bellows Falls, Vt.; Women's Chorus (1); Volley Ball (2); Green Mountain Club (2); Senior Junior Council (3); Sunday Noon Club (1, 2, 3); S. T. P.; Glee Club (3); Cercle Francais (3).

Happy? Did you ever see her when she wasn't? Jolly? Ever heard her laugh?

A good pal? We'll all say so!

She possesses a PBK brain, a sunny disposition, and an inimitable laugh. Her favorite occupations are talking French and eating, but her health demands an occasional game of tennis and a little track practice.

MARGARET E. LEE

"Peg"

Easthampton, Mass.

Easthampton High School.

This is the lady who is never idle, but finds time every day to do dozens of kind little things for other people. If you're sick, Peg is sure to have just the right remedy; if you're tired, she insists on helping you out; if you're in difficulty, she offers you sympathy and good advice. Kind-hearted, dependable, thoughtful—Peg will always hold a warm place in the hearts of those who know her.

ALICE BUCK LITTLEFIELD, ΔΔΔ

"Buckie"

Norwood, Mass.

Norwood High School; Home Economics Club (2); T. O. K. (2, 3); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Women's Chorus (1); Press Club (2).

In spite of the fact that Buckie broke her ankle freshman year (she never let a little thing like that trouble her) she is still with the Class of '23, and right glad we are to have her. She is never without that jolly smile of hers. Life is good, the world is a great old place to live in—so thinks Buckie. D. U. know, she is alright.

MURIEL MINTURN LONG, IIBΦ

Waterbury, Conn.

Crosby High School, Waterbury, Conn.; Choir (1, 2, 3); Home Economics Club (1, 2); Glee Club (3).

Muriel is little, but there is much more to her than size. A little miss with loads of energy, pep, and wit. She can dance, she can sing, she can work, she can play—just let us know what she can't do!

MARY ELLEN LOUGHREY

"Mary Ellen"

Worcester, Mass.

Classical High School, Worcester; Baseball (1, 2); Track (1, 2); All-Midd Track (2); Press Club (2, 3); Home Economics Club (3).

Mary is there with the brains just you bet—
Her brilliance is shown by the A's she can get.
But she's far from a grind—in athletics a star;
She can alight on a base, and broad jump, so far;
In writing and art she also is clever;
To find a girl like her you simply could never.

AGNES MARGUERITE LOUKES, AX

"Luksie"

West Rutland, Vt.

Rutland High School; Track (1); Volley Ball (2); Home Economics Club (2); Campus Reporter (2); Assistant Editor-in-Chief (3); Glee Club (3); L. T. B. Club.

If you wish to see her, you must apply at the Campus Office or the Register Building, always busy, looking for "news"—such is the life of the assistant Editor of our college paper. A good business woman, a better student, and the best friend ever.

CECILIA AGNES McDONOUGH

"Cele"

West Rutland, Vt.

West Rutland High School; Campus Reporter (2); News Editor (3); Volley Ball (1, 2); Glee Club (3); Assistant Editor Kaleidoscope (3); Apollo Club (3).

Big dark eyes, shy glances, sweet and frequent smiles are her external characteristics, while real scholarship, conscientious accomplishment of duties and loyalty to class and friends lie beneath the charming surface.

HELEN LOUISE McNULTY, ΣK

"Mac"

Rutherford, N. J.

Rutherford High School; Track (1); Baseball (1, 2); Captain (1); All-Midd Baseball (1, 2); American Ball (3); Home Economics Club (2); Social Committee Y. W. C. A.; American Ball (3).

A would-be general of the "Hips form, knees bend, arms raise" brigade. She is already an expert swimming teacher, first class pitcher, and can juggle a basket-ball with ease and skill. And cook—did you ever eat any of her red bunny? If she ever gets rich she is going to bestow an elevator on Pearsons, for the sake of those living on the fourth floor.

REBA MAXFIELD, AX

"Reb," "Max"

Brandon, Vt.

Brandon High School; Home Economics Club (2, 3); Junior-Senior Council (3); Glee Club (3); Press Club (3).

This is Reba, who has so many accomplishments that it is hard to name them. A great imbibor of knowledge, an accomplished musician, a popular socializer.

MILDRED FRANCES MONROE, ΣK

Bristol, Vt.

Bristol High School.

Mildred felt so keenly the attraction of the glorious class of '23 that she just had to add another 99 pounds sterling to our brilliant group—bringing with her a collection of bright and ready smiles—a huge lump of conscientiousness—an ambitious, independent spirit backed by common sense. The worst things we know about her are: (1) She comes from Bristol; (2) is rather quiet; (3) doesn't mind hard work.

DOROTHY FLORENCE NEWTON, ΠΒΦ

"Dot," "Figgie"

Wallingford, Vt.

Wallingford High School.

Our little "Fig" Newton came to Middlebury in 1919 and caused a great deal of excitement—we thought she had mistaken college for the kindergarten. We soon found, however, that that innocent expression and tiny form covered a studious sophisticated young lady. Besides maintaining a high scholastic rank and her reputation as a socializer, she now has the additional responsibility of bringing up a small sister in the Freshman Class.

MILDRED HARRIETTE PARKHILL

"Mil"

Cornwall, Vt.

Middlebury High School; Women's Chorus (1); College Orchestra (2, 3).

"Never trouble trouble till trouble troubles you."

That is Mil's chief motto and she lives up to it, too.

Mil never shirks a duty, but her work gets done so fast

That time hangs heavy on her hands, if knitting doesn't last.

Mil's always ready with a smile, some fun and lots of wit;

She's just the one to cheer you up if you're feeling blue or sick.

DOROTHY MITTA PARSONS, ΘΧΕ

"Dot," "Bisque"

Southampton, Mass.

Southampton High School; Y. W. C. A. Social Committee (2, 3); House Chairman Hillside (3); Pan-Hellenic Council (3); Junior-Senior Council (3); L. T. B. P. Club.

Her Favorites.

1. Study—Home Economics.
2. College—Amherst.
3. Sport—Football.
4. Pastime—Reading letters.
5. Pet Expression—"Oh, my cats!"
6. Color—Red.

MARGARET PERRY PORTER, ΣΚ

"Peg"

Walpole, N. H.

Walpole High School; Custodian of W. A. A. 2; Secretary of Class (3); Tennis (1); Baseball (1, 2); Captain (2); All-Midd Baseball (1, 2); Basketball (2); American Ball (3); Head of Tennis (1, 3); Home Economics Club (2); Social Committee Y. W. C. A. (3).

Leading Lady in

1. "Peg the Pitcher"—Every game won by the skill of this small but famous baseball star.

2. "Queen of the Court"—Tennis champion, winning the admiration of all athletes by the marvelous swing of her racquet.

HELEN CLARK PRAGEMAN

Tracy, Conn.

Lyman Hall High School; Baseball (2); Glee Club (3); S. T. P.; Home Economics Club (3).

For a jolly good time you must go on a hike with Helen, or to one of her feeds. With her skill in cooking we would not be a bit surprised to hear some day that she was running in competition to Kidder's Roof Garden. A charming combination she is of fun, laughter, good health and friendliness.

MARION CHAFFEE PRINCE, ΠΒΦ

"Bunny"

Franklin, Mass.

Franklin High School; Dean Academy; Simmons College; Choir (2, 3); Glee Club (3).

A most delightful pot-pourri of flashing dimples, quick smiles, brains, musical ability, and good comradeship. Bunny hopped into our midst only last year but we hope that she will find our cabbage patch a nice enough place to stay for the rest of her college career.

HAZEL OLIVER PROCTOR, OXE

"Cutie"

Fair Haven, Vt.

Fair Haven High School; Home Economics Club (1, 2); Women's Chorus (1); Glee Club (3); Home Economics 1, 2).

Here's to Hazel Proctor,
The smallest in our class—
Oh, yes, you say she's little,
But withal she's quite a lass.
She's a girl so very dainty,
Pretty, friendly, jolly,
Fond we are of all her ways.
To say you're not is folly.

GRACE LOUISE PROVENCHER

Crown Point, N. Y.

Crown Point High School.

Have you heard the news? They're going to charge rent for library chairs used more than six hours at a time. Those in the Ped. Library will be double in price. Where will Grace study then? Grace entered college with her hair in curls—she now has the poise and dignity of a senior.

EVELYN RYLE, ΣΚ

"Ev"

Montpelier, Vt.

Montpelier High School; Women's Chorus (1); Home Economics Club (2); Baseball (1, 2); Basketball (2); Track (1, 2); All-Midd Track (2); Sunday Noon Club (1); S. T. P.; W. A. A. Council (2, 3); Green Mountain Club (2); Social Service Committee Y. W. C. A. (2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (Treasurer) (3); Camp Maqua Delegate (2); Maqua Club (3); American Ball (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Basketball (3); Captain (3).

Midd never had a more loyal supporter than Ev—peppy, merry, lively, enthusiastic, she goes at everything with an energy and a persistence that always wins her success and friends.

BEULAH MARY SCOTT

Greenfield, Mass.

Greenfield High School; Volley Ball (2); All-Midd Volley Ball (2); Glee Club (3); Second Scholarship Prize (2); First American Literature Prize (2).

We know a charming maiden in the Class of '23,
She's liked as well by all of us as any maid could be She's full of joy and sunshine, whether bright or dark the day,

And offers ready friendship in the nicest sort of way.

BEATRICE AUGUSTA SCOVELL, ΠΒΦ

"Bee"

Brattleboro, Vt.

Brattleboro High School; Women's Chorus (1); Y. W. C. A. World Fellowship Committee (2); Glee Club (3).

Hillcrest residents assert that Bee has a lively imagination coupled with great discernment. We are confident that she would make a wonderful detective, second only to Sherlock Holmes. If you don't believe—that, think of the things she can see in the dark, and the suspicious characters she has discovered in Hillcrest Orchard.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

DOROTHY BELLE SLAYTON
Montpelier, Vt.

Montpelier High School; Glee Club (3); Women's Chorus (1); S. T. P.; Music Committee Y. W. C. A. (2); Home Economics Club (2, 3).

C—Chapel preludes delightfully played.

D—Domestic Science Expert.

E—Evening entertainments (midnight feeds).

F—Full of fun and music.

G—Gem of a friend—solid gold setting.

A—Able to sing as well as play.

B—Busy as the day is long.

MILDRED GRACE STEWART, AX
"Stew"

Mooers, N. Y.

Mooers High School; Glee Club (3).

Rah! Rah! Mooers! Every time Stew comes to Middlebury she buys a return ticket. She got us all excited one time by telling us of the terrible fire in her home town—postoffice, meat market, and grocery store all burned to ashes—but we were relieved to find that they were all in one building. Such is her home town, but we don't mind, for if it can send us two such specimens of its inhabitants as Fill and Stew, it must be a pretty good place, after all.

BARBARA STILPHEN, IIBΦ
"Barb"

Swanton, Vt.

Swanton High School; Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (1, 3); Home Economics Club (1, 2); Tennis (1); Women's Chorus (1); Class Vice-President (2); Baseball (2); Secretary W. A. A. (2); Secretary Student Government Association (3); Glee Club (3).

A queen of a girl, reigning supreme in the hearts of all who know her—her sceptre, a charming personality composed of tact, friendliness, and good nature—her subjects, her many friends.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

LILLIAN MYRTLE TAYLOR
Spencer, Mass.

Spencer High School; Women's Chorus (1); House Chairman "The Gables" (3).

Although Lillian is very quiet in classes, we know that she is really full of fun. She plays no favorites in her studies, but shines in all of them. Not only has she a host of friends in '23, but—sh!—don't let her know it—the freshmen at Weybridge Street will vote her the best ever.

GLADYS ROSEBELL THOMPSON
"Glad"

South Ryegate, Vt.

Montpelier Seminary; Student Volunteer (1, 2, 3); Secretary Student Volunteer Band (3); Sunday Noon Club (1, 2, 3); Vice-President (3); Y.W.C.A. Program Committee (2); Membership Committee (2); Y.W.C.A. Cabinet (3); English Literature Prize (1); Maqua Delegate (2); Maqua Club (3); Cercle Francais (3).

Gladys is a poet, but she has not yet consented to have the results of her genius published, owing to her extreme modesty. Her flow of witty remarks is astonishing.

CHARLOTTE MAE THORPE
Brandon, Vt.

Northfield Seminary, Northfield, Mass.; Brandon High School; Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Press Club (2, 3); Vice-President (3); T. O. K. Club (2, 3); Y. W. C. A. membership Committee (2, 3).

"None but herself can be her parallel."

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

MARION WARREN TRAVIS, OXE

"Marianne"

Roslindale, Mass.

Framingham High School.

Most of Marion's time is spent in the Chem. Lab. where she concocts all sorts of good things, including candy in known amounts, sometimes. However, she has plenty of time for outside affairs—we'll let you find out what they are—in fact, her outside interests extend so far that Middlebury cannot really claim all of her.

ETHELINDA TUCKER, ΔΔΔ

"Tuck"

Ipswich, Mass.

Manning High School; Women's Chorus (1); Night Hawks (1); W. W. Club (1); Y.W.C.A. Cabinet (2); Class Secretary (2); Panhellenic Council (3); Glee Club (3).

Extract from Who's Who in Middlebury:

Tucker, Ethelinda O, arrived in Middlebury, September, 1919, accompanied by much baggage, a happy grin, and a brother. Talents many and varied, music and dancing predominating. Partner in the Tucker and Frost Vaudeville Combination since 1920. Midnight performances a specialty. An entertaining fun-loving pal, popular on both sides of the hill.

MARION LUCILE TURNER

Berlin, Vt.

Montpelier High School; Track (1, 2); Basketball (2); Baseball (1); A.W.W. (1); S.T.P.

A girl well worth knowing—

Always enthusiastic—

Every ready to help—

Brilliant in her studies—

One of the famous "3rd floor gang"—

A friend indeed to all in need.

"Errors like straws upon the surface flow—

He who would search for pearls must dive below."

HELEN CAROLINE WARREN

"Kitten"

West Auburn, Mass.

Worcester Classical High School; Women's Chorus (1); Home Economics Club (2); Glee Club (3); L.T.B.P. Club.

For a combination of songster and language shark, Helen seems to stand right in the front lines. She has taken an extra number of music courses and perhaps that is why she is so playful, and then again perhaps because she is playful she has gained the name of "Kitten." And when it comes to speaking in Spanish, it's a fact that no one in the Spanish House can beat her.

GERTRUDE WELLER, AΔΦ

Brandon, Vt.

Caribou High School, Caribou, Me.; Colby College.

Our return as juniors was greeted by many surprises, among which the most pleasant perhaps was the addition of two new students to our number. Gertrude and her sister Edith, realizing that 'Colby was never like this,' left that seat of learning to come to Midd. Since then they have done much to support Bat-Cot's reputation for good times but also shown that they are good students. We are looking to them to uphold the honor of the class in the P.B.K. Fraternity.

EDITH WELLER, AΔΦ

Brandon, Vt.

Caribou High School, Caribou, Me.; Colby College.

Edith came to us this year from Colby and glad we are to have her. It didn't take her long to discover that we have a fine library and an excellent "bug" laboratory, and she believes in using the blessings that the gods provide. Promptness is evidently Edith's watchword, as she is always on the spot when she is needed. "And panting Time toiled after her in vain."

AURA DICKINSON WELLS, ΣK

Leominster, Mass.

Leominster High School; Home Economics Club (2); Glee Club (3).

Quiet? She may so appear, but how she can talk when she gets started! Sedate? Perhaps, except when she is planning some mischief. Little? Certainly, but with a head chuck full of knowledge and common sense, and a heart big enough to take in everybody.

MARY ELIZABETH WILLIAMS, $\Delta\Delta\Delta$

"Sally"

Rutland, Vt.

Rutland High School; Baseball (1); Home Economics Club (1, 2); Glee Club (3); Social Committee Y.W.C.A. (3); D.G.R.

The Mary Elizabeth quality, distinction, individuality, is found in the accompanying sample. Once known, always liked. Put up in attractive packages. A delight to the eye at all times.

RUTH ETTA WRIGHT

"Ruthie"

Colchester, Vt.

Essex Junction High School; Women's Chorus (1); Home Service Band (2); Glee Club (3).

As shy and demure as a little flower in appearance, Ruth conceals a magician's bag of tricks and jokes within. She is a storehouse of sound advice and sympathy to those who need her and the best pal ever to her many friends.

FLORENCE LETITIA YATES

Middlebury, Vt.

Middlebury High School.

How fortunate it is to have a sense of humor! Perhaps that is why Florence is such a good companion—always smiling, joking, letting nothing trouble her. The wildest thing we know about her is that she came near being in an automobile accident last summer at Northfield.

LULU HELEN ABEL, OXE

"Lou"

Naugatuck, Conn.

Naugatuck High School; Volley Ball (1, 2); Track (1, 2); Women's Chorus (1); Press Club (2); Treasurer Social Service Band (2); Missionary Committee of Y. W. C. A. (3); L. G. B. D. Club (3).

Lulu is one of the busiest persons we know. We always see her rushing to do something or to go somewhere. Nevertheless, she accomplishes a great deal of work, especially in the Chem. lab (?) and in the library.

MURIEL ANNE BARKER, AX

"Pup"

Unionville, Conn.

Farmington High School, Class Secretary (1); Home Economics Club (1, 2); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Glee Club (3); Choir (1, 2); Pan Hellenic Council (3); W.A.A. Council (3); Basket Ball (1, 2, 3).

To Whom it may Concern:

This is to introduce to you Muriel Anne. Combining the unusual qualities of attractiveness and good sense, calm and serene through any emergency, she accomplishes everything with an effective thoroughness. Although a lover of mankind, she believes in the safety of numbers, and leaves us in doubt as to who is her favorite.

The Athletic Council

The Athletic Council consists of four members of the Faculty, a graduate treasurer, six upper classmen from the Undergraduate Association who are not members of the Student Council, and the managers of all major sports, who are ex-officio members without vote. The Physical director must be included among the representatives. The purpose of the Athletic Council is the advisory control of under-graduate athletic activities.

FOOTBALL

1921

Football, Season 1921

CAPTAIN GOLLNICK

Thanks to the football appropriation the training camp was again opened at Lake Dunmore, opening this year on September fifth. At the end of the first week thirty-five men had answered Coach Morey's summons. At the return to college a few days were spent in shaping up for the game at Cambridge and during this time a few more men joined the squad. Later the number reached over forty.

On September 24th, in the first game of the season, Midd met Harvard in a surprisingly flashy game. To the satisfaction of all onlookers, the little Blue team held the Harvard men to the score of 16 to 0. In the game with Dartmouth the following week a big loss was sustained in the injury of "Bus" Brown, our veteran end, whose broken shoulder kept him out for the rest of the entire season. After a hard fought contest the Blue was triumphed over by the Green, the score board showing up the count of 28 to 3. A week later, fearlessly entering the rolling barrage of the Army's attack, Midd suffered its third defeat under the superior weight of the Soldiers, and came out, their ardor undampened, with the score of 19 to 0. But each one of these games, defeats as they were, counted as victories for the team; for they brought to its aid the loyal enthusiasm and support of the alumni and the wholehearted respect of the football world.

The tide then turned; and meeting the Norwich cadets on our own field, Quackenbush brought to mind the similar game with Norwich two years ago, when "Keck" Parker lifted a drop-kick over the bar for a field-goal and victory.

Now rampaging in her own territory, Midd went down to Williamstown on October 22nd, and blew up the sons of Eph Williams by a score of 7 to 3. A very costly fumble prevented the score from being even a greater one. By this time Keppler, the veteran player, was well under way, having joined the squad previous to the Norwich game, and continued to play an exciting game at end. On October 29, the Blue met St. Lawrence at Canton and administered a crushing defeat, 26 to 0. St. Lawrence evidently missed their former star, Sheard, who played to such good advantage in the game on Porter Field last year.

In a freezing wind the following Saturday afternoon, Midd vanquished the Clarkson scientists by a 14 to 0 score. No great exhibition of skill was shown by either eleven and the game progressed with difficulty.

In a close and fiercely fought game, the last of the season, Old Midd fell before the Green and Gold of U. V. M. by a 14 to 7 score. A fumble gave Vermont her first touchdown in the first quarter. She scored again in the second; and then, before the half was up, Drost crossed the U. V. M. goal for a touchdown. Driscoll made both touchdowns for Vermont and his playing excelled thruout the game. During the conflict, a snowstorm marred the playing considerably; and the Blue team missed Moynihan, who was obliged to undergo an operation on his ear during the last week of preparation for the game. Quackenbush was also out of the game at this time, the result of a dislocated shoulder.

Thruout the season, successfully leading his eleven, Captain Gollnick played his characteristic plunging, charging game, driving like a battering ram thru the opposing wall. Captain-elect Drost succeeded in taking care of everything on his side of the field, consistently gaining in his own territory. Ashley likewise played an excellent game at his position. Quackenbush, ably supported by Papke, succeeded in running the team in very creditable fashion.

As for the line, Midd was very fortunate in having the seasoned material it had. Upon the loss of Brown, that wing was supported by Keppler, who fitted in admirably at this position. Norton and Gallagher, both took especially good care of right tackle and left end, alternating in these positions as the need required their individual style at either station. Reinbrecht, holding down right guard, played the game of his career, continually showing flashy playing. Moynihan, until his withdrawal at the end of the season, went on with his fighting, bull-dog game of last year, even though handicapped with bad ankles. Kalin played his own comprehensive, intelligent, and powerful game.

Coach Morey's untiring efforts in whipping the team into shape were deeply appreciated by the entire college. The managing staff should be praised for faculty, and alumni alike, the season was a highly successful one; and the defeat by U. V. M., the first in seven years, will sting the men onward to greater heights of endeavor.

Baseball Season, 1921

The 1921 Baseball season, although perhaps not as successful as was hoped, showed a considerable improvement over that of last year. Weather conditions were ideal, and only two games out of the sixteen, scheduled by Manager Brigham were cancelled because of unfavorable weather conditions.

"Dave" Morey accepted the coaching responsibilities for his first baseball season with Middlebury and his work was distinctly creditable, considering the material at his disposal.

MANAGER BRIGHAM

CAPTAIN TIMBERMAN

Due to injuries which caused a constant change in the line-up, the results of last year's games do not indicate the really fine baseball played by the Club throughout the season; and in particular the effective work of Harry Hulihan, the pitcher. Hulihan's work was of the best, and attracted the attention of the major league scouts.

Track, Season 1921

Middlebury's 1921 Track Team proved a worthy successor to the long line of titleholders that have made the wearers of the Blue and White famous throughout this vicinity. Coach Brown deserves much credit for his success in building up a team that minimized the loss of several star performers of the previous season.

An early spring favored the team, and the season was opened on May 7th, when the strong R. P. I. aggregation came to Midd and left Porter Field as victors by the narrow margin of $\frac{2}{3}$ of a point, the score being $63 \frac{1}{3}$ to $62 \frac{2}{3}$. On the following week Potratz, our sole representative at the Eastern Inter-collegiates, captured second place in the discus throw.

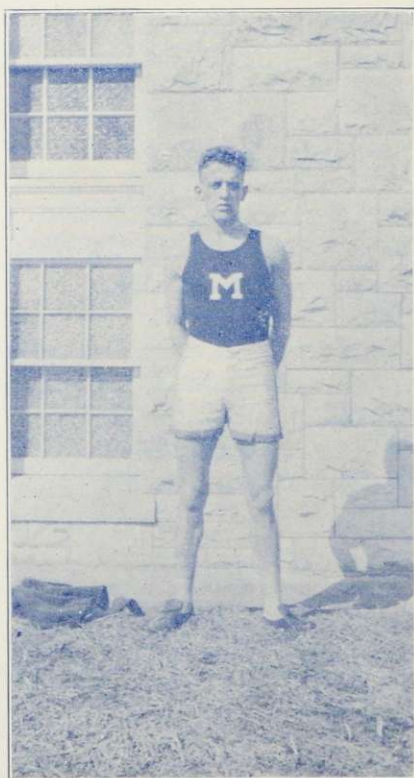

On May 21st a team of six men participated in the

MANAGER WHITNEY

New England Intercollegiates at Boston, Mass. On May 28th a crippled team valiantly met the St. Lawrence team at Cantin, New York, and finally emerged at the short end of a 77-49 score. Sickness and injury prevented Captain Robinson, Peck and others from participating in what otherwise would have been a very close meet.

The season was brought to a glorious close at Burlington on June 4th, when Middlebury walked away with the Championship of the State, scoring 65 points against 50 for the University of Vermont and 20 for Norwich. During this meet Darby clipped $\frac{1}{5}$ of a second from the college record for the 220 yard dash, bringing it down to 23 seconds flat. Potratz broke his own discus record, lengthening the distance to 116 feet, and Whitten pushed the pole vault mark up to 10 feet $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Only one man was lost by graduation, and a strong combination is expected for the season of 1922.

CAPTAIN LEONARD

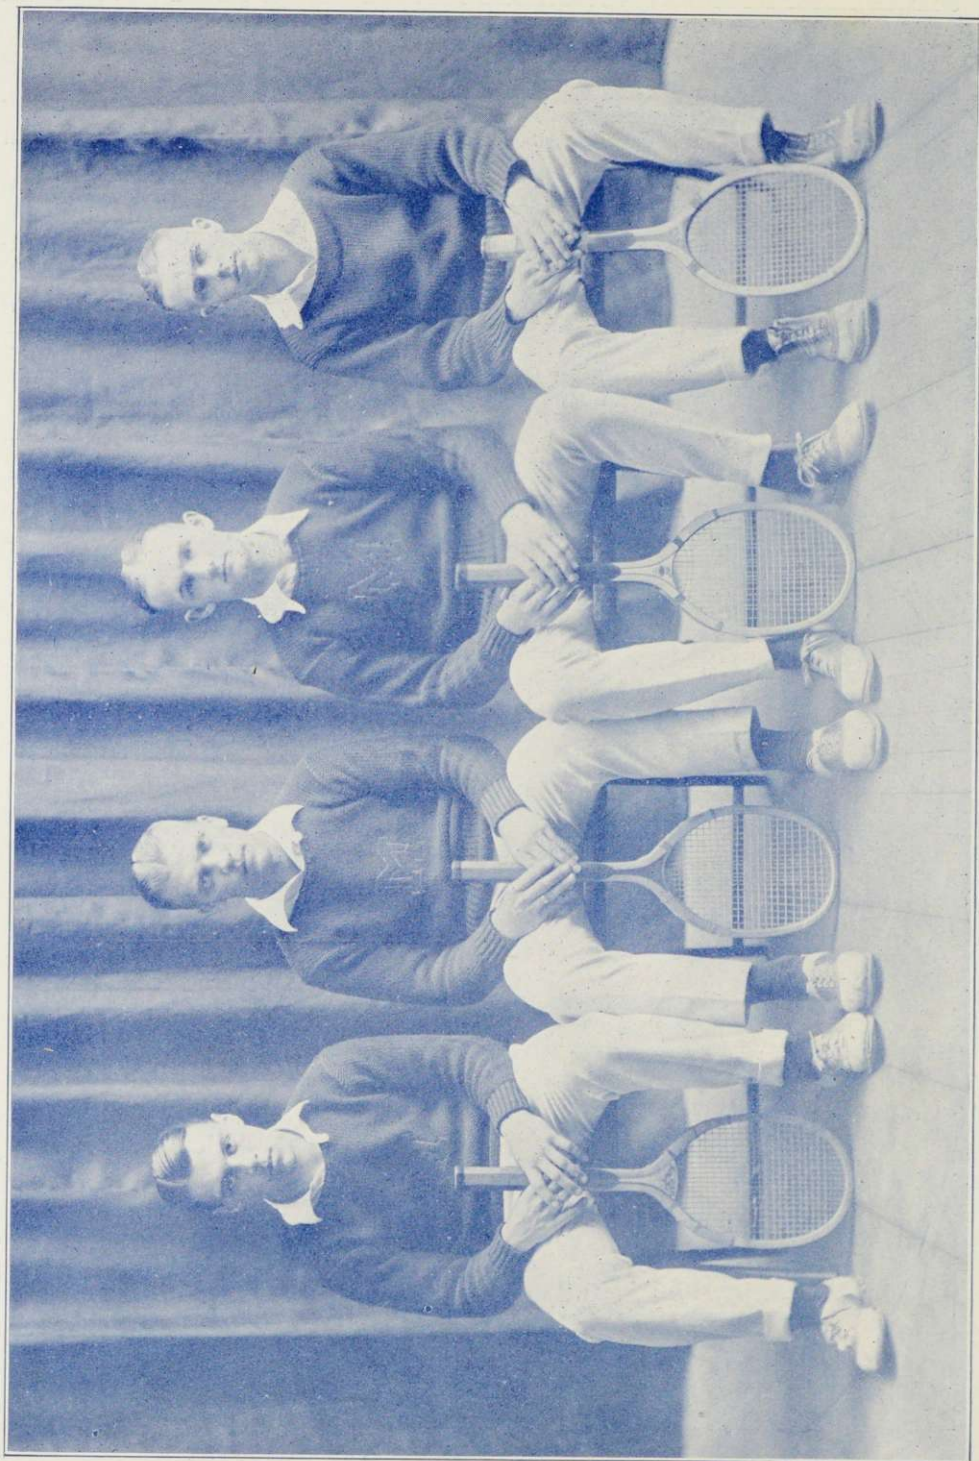

The season of 1921-22 was unsuccessful from the view-point of victories but it showed Middlebury with the same old fighting team as in former years. The team as it was first organized did not show up to its greatest advantage so after a few games it was reorganized with Captain Leonard and Ryan at guard, Reinbrecht at center, and Rich and Hardy at Forward. In the two games with Vermont especially, this combination worked well, in each case jumping into the lead and holding that lead until the final moments of play when some trick of misfortune would give the opponents the lead and the game.

Captain Leonard was the individual star of the season, as usual, scoring repeatedly from mid floor and foul line.

When the season started it was found that the Athletic Council was unable to provide a special coach for Basketball, so Coach Brown, in spite of his numerous other duties, gave unstintingly of his time and energy to make the season a success.

MANAGER COLE

Tennis, Season 1921

Tennis, a minor sport at Middlebury, at last seems to be coming into its own. Heretofore this sport has always been under a severe handicap because of the limited court facilities, but with the construction of nine extra courts this difficulty will be largely obviated.

Last spring the team left for its first game with only one day's practice, the condition of the courts having been too poor to allow further work. While the score in many cases was not all that might be hoped for, yet considering the severe handicaps under which the team labored, the results were satisfactory. Matches were played with Holy Cross, Springfield, U. V. M. and R. P. I.

The Outing Club

The Outing Club was organized for the purpose of promoting winter sports at Middlebury. The location of the college is such as to favor this aim, both because of climatic conditions and because of its proximity to Dartmouth and to McGill University, where large intercollegiate winter carnivals are held.

Middlebury is a charter member of The Eastern Intercollegiate Ski Association and this year entered a ski and snowshoe team at Dartmouth which took third place there, defeating Williams, Vermont, and Ottawa. Two weeks later Middlebury entered a snowshoe team at McGill and easily took first place in the snowshoe events and third place in the carnival. Middlebury was exceptionally strong in the snowshoe events this year, Cole, '22, taking two first places in the cross country and Robinson, '22, taking two second places in the dash.

Coach Morey has been instructing a large number of the enthusiasts in the art of ski running with the result that next year the ski men should make as fine a showing as the snowshoe men did this year.

The Outing Club plans to build a ski jump this spring near the college which will fill a long felt need. It also plans to build a cabin in the first range of the Green Mountains to the east of Middlebury which will make an ideal spot for overnight hikes.

Women's Athletic Association

Interest in Women's Athletics has greatly increased during the past year, the class contests in basketball and volley ball being especially popular. When the new baseball diamond and track for the women are completed, the rapid advancement of these sports is assured. The enthusiasm and co-operation shown is rapidly putting the Association in a higher place in college life.

'Twas a lucky star that ushered in our class of 1924; you see we outnumbered the Sophmores. Perhaps we were like other Freshmen classes in verdancy, and perhaps we did outdo our predecessors in diabolism, but undoubtedly we were unique in possibilities, though of course, we blush to admit it. We won the hat scrap nobly and Oh! what a ducking we gave those Sophmores.

But now our infant days are over and to our stock of qualities already filled, comes versatility. Easily we have become decorous, dignified sophomores, splendid examples to the class of 1925 and worthy upholders of our college. We bear due respect to the reverend Senior and jolly juniors, only laying the law to our Freshmen disturbers. Trust the boys to strike deservedly where it's needed, but in this case, scorn not the girls. Saith Mistress 1924 to little 1925, "lengthen thou thy skirts, ruff not thy hair, and weareth thou the plain gown befitting thy station." Even so, and it was done.

Our attainments in athletics and in the Social World reflect our twinkling guide, and by no means are we going to disappoint our beloved Alma Mater in the field of knowledge, but we safely prophesy our future career will be as startling as the one we have already pursued.

Camp Maqua Club

Students sent as delegates from Middlebury College to the Y. W. C. A. Conference at Camp Maqua are eligible to membership in the Camp Maqua Club. The membership of the Club has been increased, owing to the greater number of girls who have attended this Conference. To all who go, there comes inspiration and enthusiasm for carrying on the work of Y. W. C. A. for the coming year.

The Press Club

During the years 1919-20 and 1920-21, the Press Club of Middlebury College was composed of a group of students, under the direction of Professor Davison, who spent their time and effort freely, in order that the college might become better known. While the work was successful, it was decided that organization was necessary, and in April of 1921 officers were elected and a committee appointed to draft a constitution, to govern the club, which was afterward accepted. Due to the persistence of the Club, Middlebury has received a publicity in the large daily papers which otherwise she would not have obtained.

Student Volunteer Band

The Student Volunteer Band is composed of a group of students who are looking forward to service in the foreign field as their life work. The aim of the organization is to unite students all over the country who have this common purpose. The local Band, tho to some extent for study and preparation, is largely for the purpose of keeping this ideal before its members.

Two Student Volunteers recently graduated from Middlebury have gone to the foreign field. Ruth Holland, '19, sailed for Uduvil, Ceylon, in the fall of that same year and had just finished her preparation for work in the Girl's School there when she died of typhoid fever. Madaleine Halford Dixon also of the class of '19 is now working at Mt. Selinda, Rhodesia, Africa.

The Wetherell Debating Club was organized March 20, 1919, for the purpose of stimulating interest in current topics, and promoting debating and speaking at Middlebury College. Under the auspices of the Club, discussions and trial debates are held during the college year. Members of the organization compete for places on the 'Varsity Debating teams which represent Middlebury in Inter-collegiate contests. The membership is open to all undergraduates and members of the faculty, who, during the debates, act as coaches.

Debating at Middlebury

Debating at Middlebury is first recorded in the activities of the Philomathesian Society, founded in 1802 and existing until 1868. From this date to 1913 no record has been kept, but during the latter part of the year Professor Wetherell coached a freshmen team that defeated the Norwich freshmen. The following year a state triangular debate was held, with U. V. M. and Norwich participating, but with Middlebury winning the championship. In 1915 Vermont defeated Middlebury, but failed to do so the following year. The 1920 record shows an even split with the St. Lawrence debaters, Middlebury winning at home, but losing at Canton. Last year Middlebury won both debates in the triangular series with St. Lawrence and U. V. M., thus winning the league championship.

Freshman Handbook

The yearly issue of a handbook or "Freshman Bible" was one of the Middlebury activities which perished during the war period, there being no such book issued in either '19 or '20. With the revival of the local Y. M. C. A. one of the first things accomplished was to start activity in this line and thru co-operation with the Y. W. C. A., and splendid moral and financial support from nearly all the student organizations it was possible to place in the hands of this year's incoming class a very successful and comprehensive little volume.

September 22, 1921—Station, Middlebury, Vt. Frosh arrive in flocks. Great bustle and excitement. Bright Green speaks—"Now that we're here boys, let's give three rousing cheers for old Middlebury, not too boisterous you know—just hearty—there!—there! and there! Our goal at last! What a nice little station this seems to be too, so clean! But of that anon, let us ahead, we have work to do and loads to lift. Here is our conveyance." (They climb into Cook's runabout.)

Two days later. Bright Green's Boudoir. Knock at Door. "Oh, I say how jolly, do take off your rubbers and come in. On business? I declare! Well, come in anyway. You want to sell me a seat in chapel? Er—I had an idea they were—but yes—yes, of course. Mother would want me to have my worship. Three dollars and in the first row? I'll take it and thanks so much." (Another knock). "I have to pay rent for the radiator? I had supposed—but yes—yes, I see it hasn't been used much, and that paint really isn't necessary. Here's your dollar and a half. Ta! Ta!"

One week later. Bright Green loping up Chapel walk decorated with green above and white below. Between puffs, "Talk about your Blue Laws! This is like the man who had to take medicine for three days running, Ha! Ha! GEE. I never worked so much between meals before. And I feel so rough without my white collar. Gee! GEE! I wonder when Christmas vacation comes?"

Freshman P-Rade. Bright Green watching P-Rade. "Aren't they funny? Cute, too. I asked them if they wanted me to dress as Cleopatra, but none of the co-eds had a costume, so I couldn't. Where is everyone going? To the ball field? Oh, yes."

Freshman-Soph Football Game—"Come on '25—you knocked six men over that time, you are doing well! 6-9-4-3, Sounds like a telephone number, wonder what it means. I'd ask the boy next to me, but I am afraid he is a sophomore. Gee, this is a funny formation, snake dance you say it is? Never heard of that one and our coach was pretty good. Oh, I say, is that right? Rah, Rah, Rah, '25."

Junior Week—Light Green learns from the Sub-Freshman the error of his ways and decides to reform.

Commencement—Fading Green is already talking about “When I was a Freshman” and writes a letter to a 1926 Freshman offering him a seat in chapel and a radiator.

Did you hear about Polly Broomell the first of the year? She went into the bookstore and politely asked, “Do you have ‘Clothing for Women?’ ” “Sorry, Miss,” said Bill. “This may be a dry goods store, but you will have to get your dresses downtown.”

It is rumored that Eddy House is to be quarantined. Adaline Angier has a case of the “Willies.”

The Economics Prof. asked all-informed Gallagher what a felon was. “A bird,” said Rip. The class laughed because they thought they had something on him at last—but—“Oh, I mean a jail-bird,” he retorted.

Cruikshank likes to tell this story about himself when he was a youngster—Teacher: “Put your eyes on your book!” Cruik: “Can’t, my nose is in the way.”

How many views did “White” take of you? Me? Huh! Four! Both sides, front and back! Uh-huh! And the last named was the best! No doubt about it!

The Freshman girls have a new song, have you heard it? Pretty good. Name of it is, “There are green tams, too.”

“Aha,” she cried, as she bit into the nice juicy bit of rump steak served a la Bat Cott—“my teeth have played me false.”

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

Do you want to know Harry Owen's favorite joke? Here it is, "First Flea: "Been on a vacation?" Second Flea: "No, on a tramp."

Talk about your heartrending music: Have you heard the baseball players render, "No base like Home?"

Do you know Barbara Conant's definitions of life and love? "Life is one darned thing after another," and "Love is two darned things after each other," says Barbara.

One of our townsmen remarked to Ike Hulihan that he heard some of our Profs lead a fast life. "I doubt it," said Ike, "none of 'em passed me this year."

Rogers was asked how it happened his fingers were so nimble. "Oh, I was once a cheer leader in a deaf and dumb institute," he replied.

Tap Oakley is beginning to take an interest in religion. Someone asked him if he had ever been baptised. "Oh yes, once," said Tap, "I was baptised, but it didn't take."

E. Tucker had to write a vivid description of a person for English the other day. This is what she wrote: "She is short, but her dresses are long and that covers the subject."

Now that Miss Partridge has left us we can tell a funny story about her. The Prof. was calling the roll in Ped. "Miss Partridge," he said. Timid voice answers, "Here." Slang whisper from the rear, "Some bird."

Cy Shelvey strayed into Christian Endeavor Meeting on Sunday. Everyone thought he looked rather ministerial, so he was called upon to make a prayer. Cy was ready for them tho, quick as a flash he answered, "Sorry, but I'm unprayered."

Do you know what Basil Walsh asked Santa for this year? You don't? Why, for a "bicycle built for two."

"Bee" Benedict is afraid "He" doesn't like her any more. "Why," said Bee, "he took me to a football game, and every time I'd start to say anything he'd holler—'Hold that line'!"

Some of the Freshmen didn't wait for the baseball season to open, before they made their Home Runs, did they?

Do you know Byron Kelly's favorite saying? Here it is. "Now boys, don't make a joke of it!"

And do you know Helen La Force's? i.e. "She drooped a weary lip." So pathetic.

Helen Warren thinks her nick name "Kitten," doesn't suit her. But we assure you it couldn't be better, Kitten. Kitten's favorite song is, "Chase me, I'm a butterfly."

Rowland Shepardson is having his portrait painted. The title of it will be "Napoleon on Stilts."

If Christine Tasker asks you, "why the colored race washes its hair in Lux," don't bite. It's too simple. I think she made it up herself. The answer? "Oh, because it won't shrink wool!" Haw! Haw!

Guaranteed to draw pictures but not to draw a crowd—Elsie Barrell.

ABOUT THAT FIRE! A La Starr

A spark in the corner! Intrepid fireman dashes bravely toward it flourishing a fire extinguisher. Madly squirts extinguisher upon said spark. "Hey, what are you doing?" pipes up a second fireman, "this is me and my flashlight!"

One hero valiantly using hose. Another hero—"Say get that hose out of the way, I want to pour this pail of water on the blaze!" Excited, not at all!

Tarzan of the Apes—Harvey Coates as he escaped from the burning ruin by means of the ivy vines—Gee, I had to laugh!

She had the bait, she had the hook
She'd planned a "reel" good time
But she didn't catch the big fish
For she hadn't any line.

Her ears were made to hear sweet things
Her cheeks were made to blush
Her eyes were made to sparkle
Her lips were made—oh, hush!

In a little boat they sat
He held the oars and she held his hat
He held that kissing was no crime
She held her lips up every time.

The lad was sent to college
And now Dad cries "alack"
He spent a thousand dollars
And got a quarter-back.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

MISTAKES and HOW TO MAKE THEM, by our Profs.

Professor Davison—"The bride came in attended by the bridegrooms."
A Mormonitess?

Professor Hathaway—"They took a post mortem after his death."

Professor Howard—"He took hold of the door knob and it wasn't there." AND YET THEY FLUNK US!

Prof. Howard got a pretty good one off on Timberman the other day. "Who can give an example of memory by association?" said the Prof. Up came Timberman's hand with the bright answer, "Why, think of the word 'lice' when you spell receive and believe." "Oh, yes," said Prof. Howard, "I see, you keep lice running through your head all the time"

Somebody that he was pretty clever when he wrote on the board in Prof. Burrage's Greek room—

Some like it hot
Some like it cold
Some like the atmosphere
Nine days old!

Prof. McDonald dared the boys in Economics 1 to raise mustaches—he didn't think they could!

Heard at the English Club: "Dorothy Canfield Fisher's 'Brimming Cup,' is her first full novel since the war."

At the next informal meeting of the Debating Club, there will be a discussion on "How short should young ladies wear their dresses?" D. Haydn says "above two feet, anyway." Clever.

"There will be a lecture in the gym tonight on 'Snow-flakes'"—read the notice in chapel. "Any slides?" inquired the bright person with red hair on the end of the pew.

Junior Limericks

Guess Who?

There was once in the cast of "The Shiek"
A girl who was back mild and meek (?)
She'd be all the rage
If she'd go on the stage
And dance to the tunes of a Deke.

There once was a lad with a tongue
Which was said from the middle was hung
When it came to debate
He talked early and late
Giving words of advise to the young.

As an actor he stan's at the head
When he's broke he can still earn his bread
With his gestures and smile
He can beat all a mile
But his feet are his fortune t'is said.

She wore glasses and had a dutch cut
Wathed with books on her head, and a strut
All her courses she passed
By the questions she asked
For her mouth couldn't seem to stay shut.

With his head and his nose six feet high,
He can barely see folks passing by,
Since he went on the stage
He's become quite the rage
With that "butler" look right in his eye.

THE 1923 KALEIDOSCOPE

Somebody asked Dad Ross if he knew anything about a flivver. "Nothing but a couple of funny stories," said Dad.

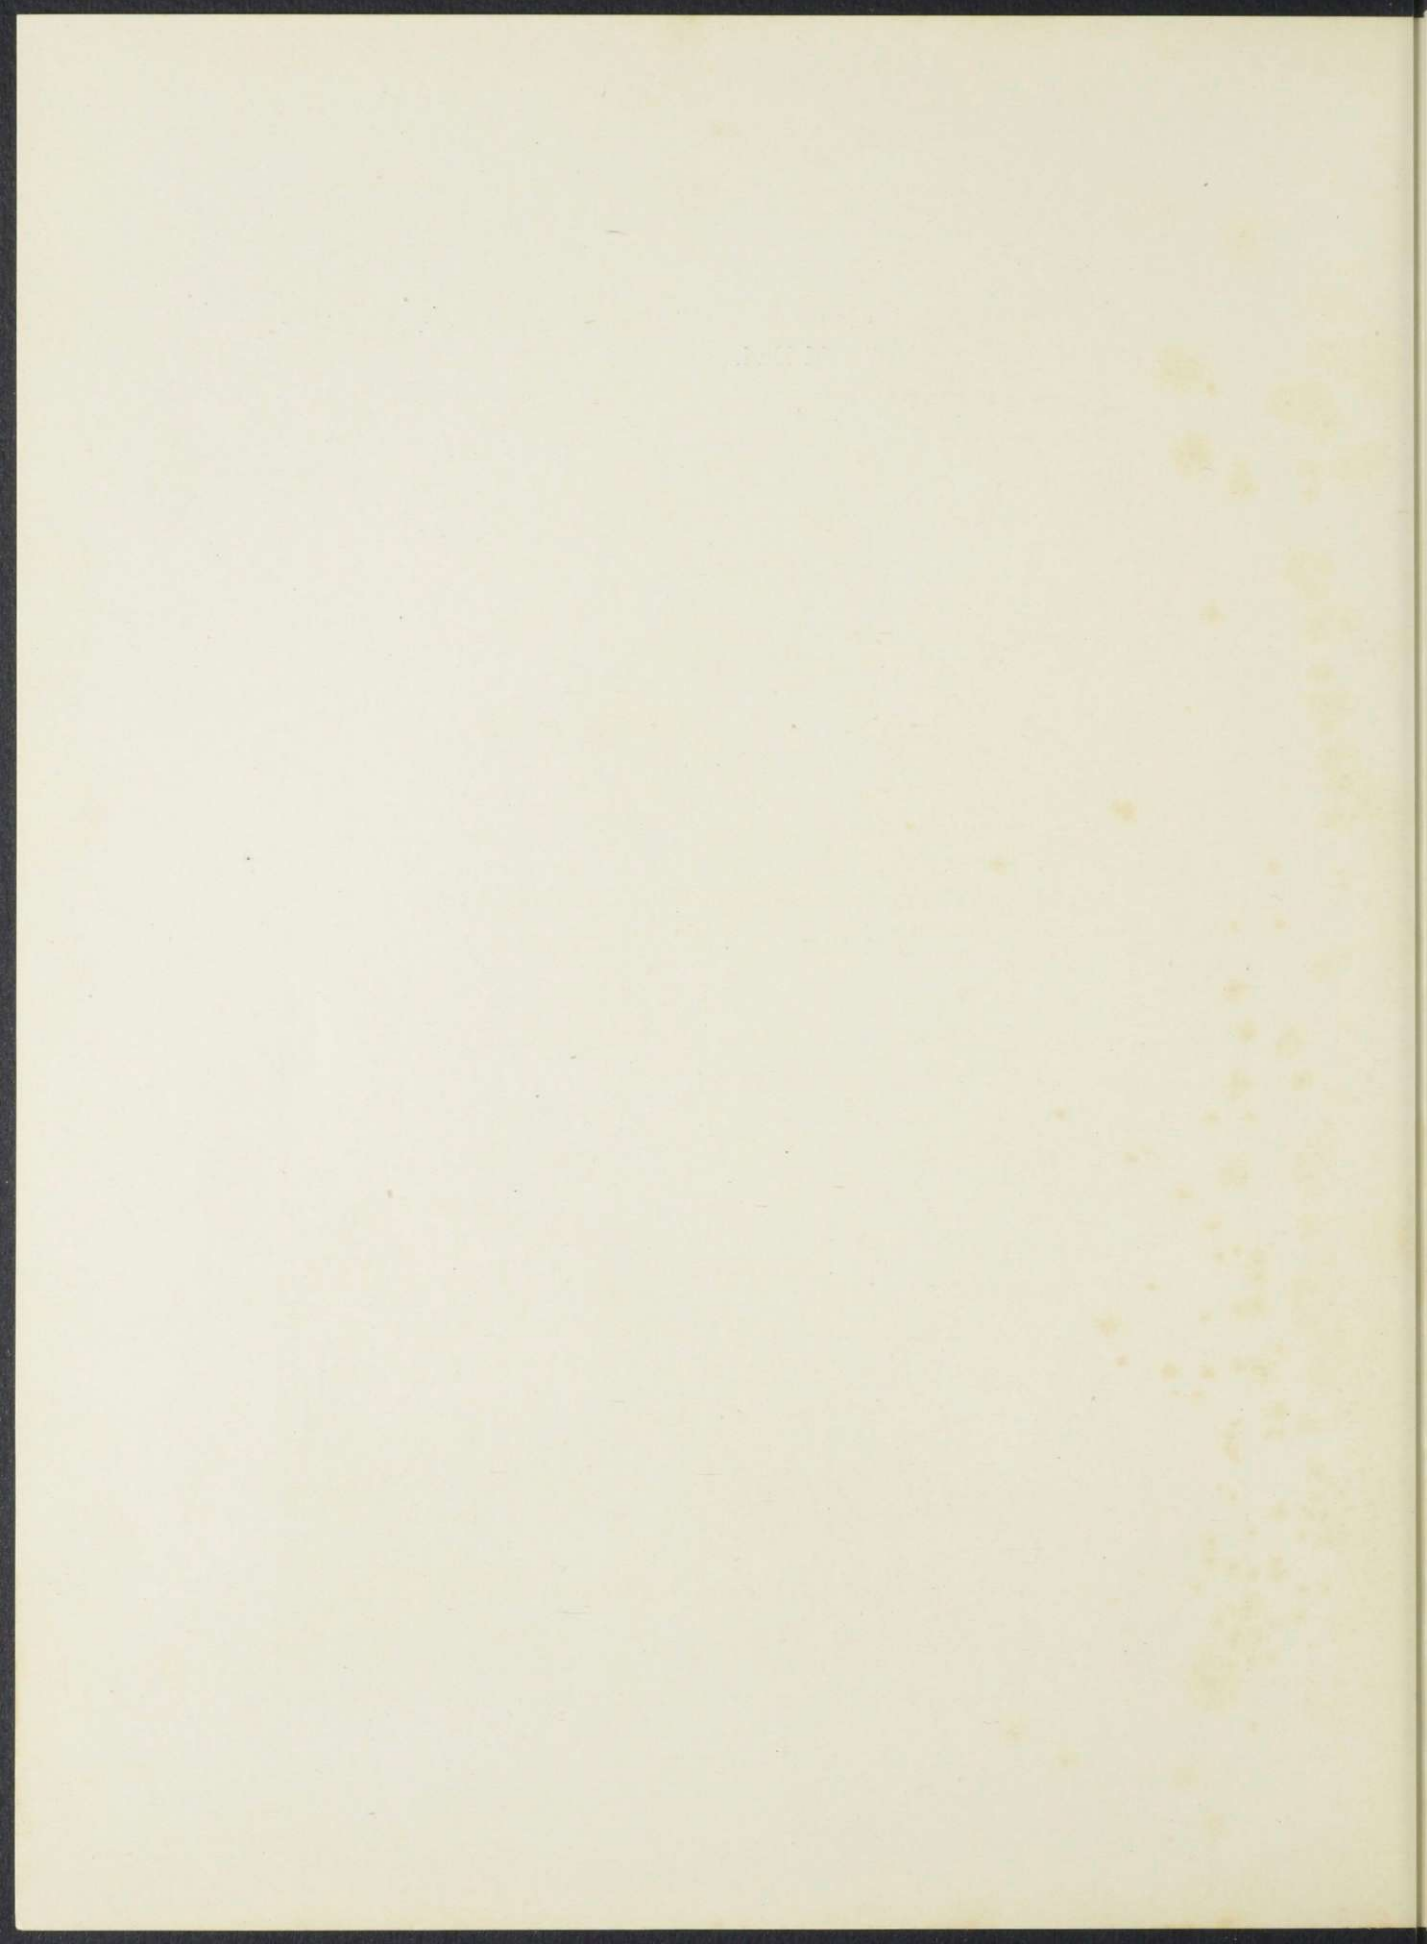

In English 6—Prof. Shillings—Next time you make take the life of Matthew Arnold. Prepare him well.

Eeny, meeny, miny, mo,
Carp nigrum dizito
Sin exclamat, relinquo
Eeny, meeny, miny, mo.

A Gateway to Progress

There it stands—a simple forty-foot gateway but unlike any other in the entire world. Through it have come many of the engineering ideas that have made this an electrical America.

The story of electrical development begins in the Research Laboratories. Here the ruling spirit is one of knowledge—truth—rather than immediate practical results. In this manner are established new theories—tools for future use—which sooner or later find ready application.

The great industries that cluster around Niagara Falls, the electrically driven battleships, the trolley cars and electrified railways that carry millions, the lamps that glow in homes and streets, the household conveniences that have relieved women of drudgery, the labor-saving electrical tools of factories, all owe their existence, partly at least, to the co-ordinated efforts of the thousands who daily stream through this gateway.

Where can you get the most style,
quality, value?

Those are the things you want. You'll not find them where "selling at a price" is the main idea. You'll find them where quality and style are of first importance, where there's a desire to give you all the quality your money can buy.

You'll find the things you want at this store where Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes are sold.
